Whilst Capt. C. S. Ganapathy, 2nd Mysore Infantry, was supervising grenade throwing, a recruit, after having pulled out the safety pin, accidentally dropped a grenade at his feet.

Capt. Ganapathy with great presence of mind and at great personal risk immediately picked up the grenade and threw it but it burst shortly after it left his hand causing him severe injuries.

This highly commendable action undoubtedly prevented fatal or serious injury to three sepoys who were standing nearby."
